1K511-1 124 Judate 1

AERICAN RED CLOSS CLUB TOURS CENERAL TOUR - AFTERNOON

PLNTICON

The Pantheon is the nest famous of the buildings of incient Rome and is the only ancient odifice which has come to us in a perfect state of preservation. The structure was founded in the filest contury B.C. (27 B.C.) by Marcus Agrippa and dedicated to all gods aged by a lightoning bolt ad fire which resulted but was beevered by Cadria in the years 110-125 A.D. Today it is said to be the greatest achievement in interior architecture accomplished by the Romans. The sixteen nonelith granite columns which support the perfuse measure 46 ft. in hoight. The gilt bronze tiles which once approved the done are gone; but the ancient bronze doors runain and any the greatest of all Roman doors that have been preserved, he to the interner the whole is one plane or equality - the diameter of the Retender (148 ft.) being exactly equal to the height from the floor to samut and the height from the floor to cornice, equal to that from cornico to a -pox. The Pantheon is lit by the circular hole in the done - this done being the largest and oldest in the world, "Non Christianity replaced Paganism, Popo Bonifaco IV in 609, consecrated the Pantheon as a Christian Church and it is still used as such today (The Royal Church). It was dodicated to the Mother of God under the name of Sancta ad Hartyros and it is said that on this occasion of it's consacration, a large numbor of bonos of nartyros word brought to the Pantheon from the Catacombs. The tembs of Victor Emanuel II, Unberto I and Raphael are located here with this of other gr at artist. THE PYRAMID OF CLIUS CESTIUS The pyranid was built in the year 30 B.C. to mark to tomb of Caius Costius, who was a practor, a tribund and a number of the collogo of Soptonviri Epulonos and had charge of the solurn, sacrificial banquots. It is about 117 ft. high and is covered with slabs of white marblo. ST. PAUL'S OUTSIDE THE WALLS San Paolo fuori lo Mura is one of the major churches of Rome.

The site is that of a Church built by Constantine over the torb of St. Taul, which was also the site of a Roman Concetory. St. Taul was martyred approximately 15 miles away. The Church was largely destroyed by fire in 1823, but robuilt along the same plans and dimensions and was finally consacrated by Topo IX in 1854. Polotti built it - with the whole world contributing.

The interior is 394 ft. by 197 ft. and 75 ft. high. The interior is 394 ft. by 197 ft. high. The 80 columns of grey (remite wore quarricd in Bavono on Lake Maggiore and brought to Robe on rafts. The high altar is surmounted by a famous tabornacle by Arnelie de Cambio (1285). Alogn the friezes of the nave and aisles are negalizens of all the Bishops of Rono St. Potor until the present day (numbering 264 in all) Bonoath the altar lies the body of St. Paul in a simple stone coffin marked "Taul Apostlo". The cloisters were built by the school of Cosmati in the 13th century.

PIAZZA VENIZIA

The large white building - monument - rising from the slope of the Capitoline Hill in named in honor of the first King of unified Italy, Victor Emanuel II, It was begun in 1885 and construction continued for 26 years. It is 500 ft.leng, 250 ft.high and was designed by Sacconi. The statue of the King is in gilded bronze and is over the tomb of the Unknown Soldier of World Car I on the Altar of the Fatherland

As you the monument on the right hand side of the Piazza is the Palazzo Vonozia. It takes it's name from the fact that the Venetian Ambassador lived here in the days when Venice was an independent republic - the most powerful in Europe. Musselini had his office here during the days of bis dictatorship and in the center of the building they hold at the present an Art Exhibition.

CASTLE SANT'ANGELO:

Castle San'Angelo was built in the II Century A.D. by Hadrian. In Roman times it was the tomb of Emperor Hadrian. In Middle Age it was transformed into a fortress. From 1870 it was first used as Barracks and then turned into a Museum. It was at present one of the most important, and interesting sights of Rome, since the former appartments of the Popes, who generally came here for protection when danger arose, are still in excellent condition.

The Armory and the dungeons as well as the plaster models of the Castle in different epochs, add great interest.

TOMBS OF AUGUSTUS:

The Tomb of Augustus was erected in the 1st Century B.C. and was used, up the short time ago, as a Concert Hall for the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia.

CAFIIOLI E MUSEUM:

The Museum was founded in 1471 by Sixtus IV, chiefly built by pupils of Michelangelo. Contains the famous "Dying Gaul", origi-nal of the 1st contury BC, "Venus of the Capitol", Greek Statue found in 1684, an Etruscan bronze "Wolf of the Capitol", the statue of a boy extracting a thorn from his foot, called the "Shephard Martius", the "Rosso Antico" marble Faun, The Centaurs and the interes-ting Roman tapistries.

CHURCH OF ARA COELI:

The name of this church is generally attributed to an altar erected by Augustus Caesar. In the Middle Ages, Ara Coeli was the church of the Roman Senate and it has often served as a Parliament House for the city of Rome. In the 1st Chapel, on the right. is a painting of St. Bernardino da Siena, a work of Bernardino Finturicchio

In the "Presepio" there is a famous XVI Century wooden sculpture of the "Infant Christ".

MAMERTINE PRISON:

The Mamertine Prison and the Carcere Tulliano, is the oldest Roman dungeon, in which St. Peter and Paul are said to have been bound to a pillar for nine months.

PIAZZA NAVONA:

A vast oblong Piazza pccupying the site of the Circus Agonalis of Domitianus which had seats for 30.000 spectators and boats three handsome fountains.

The center fountain, built by Bernini in the XVII Century is called the Fountain of the four Rivers. Others were built in the XIII Century.

BASILICA OF ST.PETER'S

In 327, Constantine the Great began the erection of a Basilica, laboring with his own hands. In 846 the Basilica suffered severely by the Saracenic invasion, and later was restored by Leo IV. In 1506 Julius II began the new St.Feter's from design by Bramante, Raffaello and the Architect Sangallo. The dome was designed by Michelangelo. however it was very different from what we now admire. The present dome is the work of Giacomo Della Forth, and was finisched in 1570. The ball and cross were install-d in 1593. The Church was consacrated by Pope Urban VIII November 18, 1626. The colonnade was added by Alexander VII in 1667, the sacristy by Fius VI in 1780. The facade of ST.Peter's is 3'7'ft long and 14% ft high. It is surmounted by a balustrate six ft in height bearing statues of the Saviourand the 12 Apostles. The ogntral door of bronze is a remnant of the old Basilice and was done by Antonio Filareta in 1481. The rloor of the Basilica is of inlaid coloured marble designed by sincomo Dello Forta and Bernini. Confession is the work of Casanova, the Canopy in bronz was done by Bernini in 1633. In the first Chapel is the Statue "Pieta" by Michelangelo. The Shoristy of St. Peter's was built by Pius VI in 1755 from desing by Carlo Morchioni. The Treasury of St. Peter's, which stands above the Papal Altar (the grave of the Apostle Feter) countains works by Polainolo, Benveauto Callini; ancient jewels and arucifixes. THE CATACOMPS There are 42 Contocombs which are used as underground burial voults. They are formed by subterranean galeries, the augure of which constantly increased as Christianity kept spreading. The Cothcombs of St. Callisto are the lorgest and also countain the tomb of St. Cecilia's. Those of St.S-bastian's, guarded up to the time of Con-tnatino, countain remains of the Bodies of the Apostles Peter and Paul, which brought back to their original graves by Canstantine, the Basilices of St.Peter'and Faul were built over these graves.

CIRCUS MAXIMUS

The Mircus Maximus, Rome most extensive monument, whe elmost complately destroyed in the time of Foul V. It was used for charlot races, first institute by Torquinius Friecus in honor of Jonsus. It was a vast oblong of 730 yards, ending eastward in a s-micycl, and surrounded by three tiers of sents. At one time the Circus was capable of accomodating more than 350.000 persons. The circus was used until the sixth Century.

THE BATHS OF CAPACALLA

These Baths which could accomodate 1000 bathers at once, were begun by Caracalla in 212 A.D. and finished under Alexander Severus. They were supplied with water by the Actonine Adusauct, which branched hither for that purpose from the Claudine, over the manuaed Arch of Drusus, seen further along the road near the gate.

neatheaththatatation and ceanedth case. Teacher, and oth

THE ACMAN FORUL

Cnce a swamp between the Palatine, Volia, Esquiline, Quirinal and Capitoline Hills, it was first the center of some, and later the center of the world. It was the center of all activities, up to the time of Constantine. It suffered immensely when Robert, the Guiscard, of Normandy, sathed tome in the 11th century. From on for several centuries, it was used as a dumping place. The mubbish poured in here, riased it's level up to the street level of today.

Excavations were started by Pope Fius IX in the XIX Century. Among the buildings and monuments to be seen, special mention should be made of the Roman Senate, began by Julius Caesar and inaugurated by Augustus in B.C. 29. The temple of Ceasar is the site where the body of Ceasar was creamated. Here one finds the the Temple of Vesta is where the everlasting fire was left burning. Temples of Castor and Polhex, which have the oldest and best columns of the forum, The Triumphal Arches of Titusano Septimus Seveenus and, the Basilica of Constantine.

ST. JOHN'S CLIHED.LL

. .

Built by Cold and the simultaniously to the Frank "Lew tern P lace", and concontrated originally to the name of "Our Series". Grantly inlarged in the XIX Century, this is no offer St. John's.

It suffered from many alterations, which turned it into a Barocque construction. Through the bronze main door, a relic of the Homan Senate, we enter the main nave, surmounted by a beautiful wooden ceiling, of the XVI Century. The marble statues along the main naverepresent the 12 Apostles and the plaster Bas-relief, on the left and right, represent scenes of the old Testament.

The floor restored by Pope Pius XI was laid in the XIII Century. In the canopy, which sourmounts the main altar, are St. Peter's and St. Baul's shalls. At the "Tribuna" is the Papal Throne, sourmounted by a beautiful masaic, epresenting three different epochs.

At the left end above the Altar, and below the bronze canopy right inside the wall, a few wooden boards are kept, which were brought from Mount Zion, by St. Holona, and are said to be the remains of the Last Supper's Table.

1 '

OUT OF TOWN TOURS

OSTIA

Ostia was built at the mouth of the Tiber in the beginning of the IV Century B.C., as a "Castrumi" or fortified encampmont to provent eventual enemies from entering the Tiber River, and move up towards Nome.

Later it became very important harbour and the city grew to more than 100.000 inhabitants, as all large vessels transporting food, etc., were unloaded here and goods stored in its spacious "Horreas" or Marchouses. The cities' ruins offer intersting examples of architecture, and one can get a good idea of Roman life in that period.

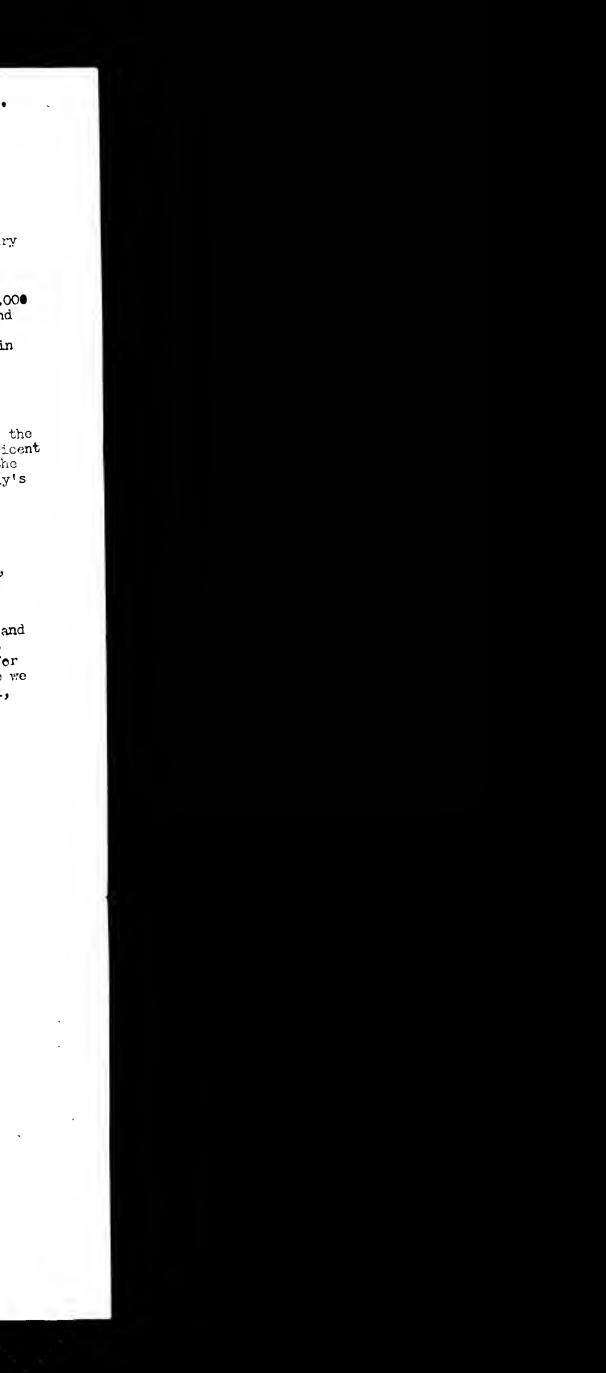

TIVOLI

The ancient "Tibur" which may have been built before Rome and situated on the slopes of the Appennine Mountains, is famous for its Waterfalls and it's magnificent Villa D'Este. The latter was planned by Pirro Ligorio in the XVI Century for the Cardinal Ippolito D'Este. It's informal garden is considered to be one of Italy's finest.

ALBAN HILLS

On the Appian Way, passing by the picturesque Aquaducts, we reach Albano, built over the remains of the Emperor Domitian's body guard barracks. Then we come to Castle Gandolfo, where the Papal summer desidence, on the shore of the enchanting volcanic lake Albano, is located. Here we generally take a stroll through the magnificient formal gardens. Then Marino, famous for it's vines, and on the first Sunday of October wine flows frealy from one of the torm's oldest fountains. We reach Grottaferrata, neted for the delicacy of it's wines and for it's Abbey and Church of the XI Century. We visit the Church and Chapel where we find the famous frescoes by Devenichino. Tipp prmitting we drive to Prescati, built below the hilltop, where once stood the oncient town of Tusculum.

本米米米米米米米米米米米米米米

BORGHESE GALLERY

The Borghose Palace, which is now the Borghose Callery, & s the private summer residence of the Borghese family. Built in X/II Contury countains many famous pletures and statues by Italian artist. Among them we mention : Canova, Bornini; paintings on the second floor by Raffadlo, Tinteretto, Botticelli, Perugino, Malbein, Verenese otc.

ST MARIA MAGGIORE

St. Haria Haggioro is one of the great Basilicas of Rome. Built in the IV Century by the Pope Liberius I, it contains two big chapels, Paolina and Sistina, also the tumb of the great scultor Fernini, Notice a marvolous XV Contury mosaic by Torrita.

ST.PETER IN CHAINS

The Church was built in the V Contury. It countains the chains of St. Potor and Paul, You can admiro the famous Statue of Mosos - by Micholangolo - dono in tho XVI Contury.